Words and music by Tim Staffell

Verse 1:

Am D G Em
I might be at a table and suddenly I'll catch
C D G a fleeting vision of her crystal seas
Am D G Em
or I might be standing in a crowded dockyard far away
C D G underneath the sun I've never seen

Chorus:

C G Am
For I have seen many worlds for what its worth
C G Am F
but I'll never see again the planet Earth, my Earth.

Verse 2 - Chords as versel:

I might be chasing waves of light out towards the rim where the stars are sparse and the cold of space seeps in.
Or I might be in a bar room drinking methylated gin and thinking of the places I have been

Chorus:

Yes I have seen many worlds for what its worth
but I'll never see again the planet Earth, my Earth

Instrumental:

Chorus again:

Yes I have seen many worlds for what its worth
but I'll never see again the planet Earth, my Earth

Verse 3: As for verse 1:

Cast adrift amongst the stars I float from sun to sun dreaming of the world that gave me birth
All the places I have been remind me there is none to match the cool green rolling hills of earth

Chorus:

Yes I have seen many worlds for what its worth
but I'll never see again the planet Earth, my Earth
